

This New Year, TEAM SNEHA wishes to thank all its well wishers, funders and supporters. With your constant support we have made giant strides in our aim to create healthy urban communities.

Some of our achievements:

- SNEHA has impacted the health of over 50,000 vulnerable women and children upto March 31st 2014.
- Built the capacity of over 4000 public health and safety workers every year.
- SNEHA won the prestigious Vodafone Foundation's Mobile for Good Award for its 'Little Sister Project' for crowd sourcing of violence for improved reporting of violence and faster redressal of violence in slums.
- SNEHA's research acumen was recognised and Forbes Marshall Trust gave SNEHA's research team a grant to carry out research on community front-line personnel.
- We saw media coverage in many Indian and international newspapers.

- SNEHA had volunteers and interns from prestigious colleges including Université de Montréal (UdeM) Quebec, South Asian Institute of Heidelberg Universität , Australian National University , King's College in London.
- After a successful partner meeting our Maternal and Newborn Health Programme has been invited to extend their referral work in other MMRDA areas beyond Mumbai.
- SNEHA is gearing up to launch Dharavi Biennale starting Feb 2015. The Dharavi Biennale aims to combine art and science to shed light on the socioeconomic conditions in Dharavi.
- SNEHA has initiated Mobile Health Services for under served areas around Thane through a needs assessment survey.
- 25500, children below 6 were covered for identification and management of malnutrition in our intervention areas in Dharavi, Kandivali and M East ( Mankhurd and Govandi).
- 991 youth covered this year through our EHSAS programme and 152 youth were able to find employment.
